1 AN ACT concerning civil law.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly:

- Section 5. The Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act is amended by changing Sections 503 and 505 as follows:
- 7 (750 ILCS 5/503) (from Ch. 40, par. 503)
- 8 Sec. 503. Disposition of property.
- 9 (a) For purposes of this Act, "marital property" means all 10 property acquired by either spouse subsequent to the marriage, 11 except the following, which is known as "non-marital property":
- 12 (1) property acquired by gift, legacy or descent;
- 13 (2) property acquired in exchange for property
 14 acquired before the marriage or in exchange for property
 15 acquired by gift, legacy or descent;
- 16 (3) property acquired by a spouse after a judgment of legal separation;
- 18 (4) property excluded by valid agreement of the parties;
- 20 (5) any judgment or property obtained by judgment 21 awarded to a spouse from the other spouse;
- 22 (6) property acquired before the marriage;
- 23 (7) the increase in value of property acquired by a method listed in paragraphs (1) through (6) of this subsection, irrespective of whether the increase results from a contribution of marital property, non-marital property, the personal effort of a spouse, or otherwise, subject to the right of reimbursement provided in subsection (c) of this Section; and

- (8) income from property acquired by a method listed in paragraphs (1) through (7) of this subsection if the income is not attributable to the personal effort of a spouse.
- (b) (1) For purposes of distribution of property pursuant to this Section, all property acquired by either spouse after the marriage and before a judgment of dissolution of marriage or declaration of invalidity of marriage, including non-marital property transferred into some form of co-ownership between the spouses, is presumed to be marital property, regardless of whether title is held individually or by the spouses in some form of co-ownership such as joint tenancy, tenancy in common, tenancy by the entirety, or community property. The presumption of marital property is overcome by a showing that the property was acquired by a method listed in subsection (a) of this Section.
- (2) For purposes of distribution of property pursuant to this Section, all pension benefits (including pension benefits under the Illinois Pension Code) acquired by either spouse after the marriage and before a judgment of dissolution of marriage or declaration of invalidity of the marriage are presumed to be marital property, regardless of which spouse participates in the pension plan. The presumption that these pension benefits are marital property is overcome by a showing that the pension benefits were acquired by a method listed in subsection (a) of this Section. The right to a division of pension benefits in just proportions under this Section is enforceable under Section 1-119 of the Illinois Pension Code.

The value of pension benefits in a retirement system subject to the Illinois Pension Code shall be determined in accordance with the valuation procedures established by the retirement system.

The recognition of pension benefits as marital property and the division of those benefits pursuant to a Qualified Illinois Domestic Relations Order shall not be deemed to be a diminishment, alienation, or impairment of those benefits. The division of pension benefits is an allocation of property in which each spouse has a species of common ownership.

(3) For purposes of distribution of property under this Section, all stock options granted to either spouse after the marriage and before a judgment of dissolution of marriage or declaration of invalidity of marriage, whether vested or non-vested or whether their value is ascertainable, presumed to be marital property. This presumption of marital property is overcome by a showing that the stock options were acquired by a method listed in subsection (a) of this Section. The court shall allocate stock options between the parties at

In making the allocation between the parties, the court shall consider, in addition to the factors set forth in subsection (d) of this Section, the following:
 - (i) All circumstances underlying the grant of the stock option including but not limited to whether the grant was for past, present, or future efforts, or any combination thereof.
- 12 (ii) The length of time from the grant of the option to 13 the time the option is exercisable.
 - (b-5) As to any policy of life insurance insuring the life of either spouse, or any interest in such policy, that constitutes marital property, whether whole life, term life, group term life, universal life, or other form of life insurance policy, and whether or not the value is ascertainable, the court shall allocate ownership, death benefits or the right to assign death benefits, and the obligation for premium payments, if any, equitably between the parties at the time of the judgment for dissolution or declaration of invalidity of marriage.
 - (c) Commingled marital and non-marital property shall be treated in the following manner, unless otherwise agreed by the spouses:

- (1)When marital and non-marital property commingled by contributing one estate of property into another resulting in a loss of identity of the contributed property, the classification of the contributed property is transmuted to the estate receiving the contribution, subject to the provisions of paragraph (2) subsection; provided that if marital and non-marital property are commingled into newly acquired property resulting in a loss of identity of the contributing estates, the commingled property shall be deemed transmuted to marital property, subject to the provisions of paragraph (2) of this subsection.
- (2) When one estate of property makes a contribution to another estate of property, or when a spouse contributes personal effort to non-marital property, the contributing estate shall be reimbursed from the estate receiving the contribution notwithstanding any transmutation; provided, that no such reimbursement shall be made with respect to a contribution which is not retraceable by clear and convincing evidence, or was a gift, or, in the case of a contribution of personal effort of a spouse to non-marital property, unless the effort is significant and results in substantial appreciation of the non-marital property. Personal effort of a spouse shall be deemed a contribution by the marital estate. The court may provide for reimbursement out of the marital property to be divided or

- In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or (d) declaration of invalidity of marriage, or in a proceeding for disposition of property following dissolution of marriage by a court which lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse or lacked jurisdiction to dispose of the property, the court shall assign each spouse's non-marital property to that spouse. It also shall divide the marital property without regard to marital misconduct in just proportions considering all relevant factors, including:
 - (1) the contribution of each party to the acquisition, preservation, or increase or decrease in value of the marital or non-marital property, including (i) any such decrease attributable to a payment deemed to have been an advance from the parties' marital estate under subsection (c-1)(2) of Section 501 and (ii) the contribution of a spouse as a homemaker or to the family unit;
 - (2) the dissipation by each party of the marital or non-marital property, provided that a party's claim of dissipation is subject to the following conditions: +
 - (i) a notice of intent to claim dissipation shall be given no later than 60 days before trial or 30 days after discovery closes, whichever is later;
 - (ii) the notice of intent to claim dissipation shall contain, at a minimum, a date or period of time

Т	duffing which the marriage began undergoing an
2	irretrievable breakdown, an identification of the
3	property dissipated, and a date or period of time
4	during which the dissipation occurred;
5	(iii) the notice of intent to claim dissipation
6	shall be filed with the clerk of the court and be
7	served pursuant to applicable rules;
8	(iv) no dissipation shall be deemed to have
9	occurred prior to 5 years before the filing of the
10	petition for dissolution of marriage, or 3 years after
11	the party claiming dissipation knew or should have
12	known of the dissipation;
13	(3) the value of the property assigned to each spouse;
14	(4) the duration of the marriage;
15	(5) the relevant economic circumstances of each spouse
16	when the division of property is to become effective,
17	including the desirability of awarding the family home, or
18	the right to live therein for reasonable periods, to the
19	spouse having custody of the children;
20	(6) any obligations and rights arising from a prior
21	marriage of either party;
22	(7) any antenuptial agreement of the parties;
23	(8) the age, health, station, occupation, amount and
24	sources of income, vocational skills, employability,
25	estate, liabilities, and needs of each of the parties;

(9) the custodial provisions for any children;

- 1 (10) whether the apportionment is in lieu of or in addition to maintenance;
 - (11) the reasonable opportunity of each spouse for future acquisition of capital assets and income; and
 - (12) the tax consequences of the property division upon the respective economic circumstances of the parties.
 - (e) Each spouse has a species of common ownership in the marital property which vests at the time dissolution proceedings are commenced and continues only during the pendency of the action. Any such interest in marital property shall not encumber that property so as to restrict its transfer, assignment or conveyance by the title holder unless such title holder is specifically enjoined from making such transfer, assignment or conveyance.
 - (f) In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or declaration of invalidity of marriage or in a proceeding for disposition of property following dissolution of marriage by a court that lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse or lacked jurisdiction to dispose of the property, the court, in determining the value of the marital and non-marital property for purposes of dividing the property, shall value the property as of the date of trial or some other date as close to the date of trial as is practicable.
 - (g) The court if necessary to protect and promote the best interests of the children may set aside a portion of the jointly or separately held estates of the parties in a separate

- fund or trust for the support, maintenance, education, physical 1 2 and mental health, and general welfare of any minor, dependent, or incompetent child of the parties. In making a determination 3 under this subsection, the court may consider, among other 4 5 things, the conviction of a party of any of the offenses set forth in Section 11-1.20, 11-1.30, 11-1.40, 11-1.50, 11-1.60, 6 12-3.3, 12-4, 12-4.1, 12-4.2, 12-4.3, 12-13, 12-14, 12-14.1, 7 12-15, or 12-16, or Section 12-3.05 except for subdivision 8 9 (a) (4) or (g) (1), of the Criminal Code of 1961 if the victim is 10 a child of one or both of the parties, and there is a need for, 11 and cost of, care, healing and counseling for the child who is 12 the victim of the crime.
 - (h) Unless specifically directed by a reviewing court, or upon good cause shown, the court shall not on remand consider any increase or decrease in the value of any "marital" or "non-marital" property occurring since the assessment of such property at the original trial or hearing, but shall use only that assessment made at the original trial or hearing.
 - (i) The court may make such judgments affecting the marital property as may be just and may enforce such judgments by ordering a sale of marital property, with proceeds therefrom to be applied as determined by the court.
 - (j) After proofs have closed in the final hearing on all other issues between the parties (or in conjunction with the final hearing, if all parties so stipulate) and before judgment is entered, a party's petition for contribution to fees and

- costs incurred in the proceeding shall be heard and decided, in 1 2 accordance with the following provisions:
 - (1) A petition for contribution, if not filed before the final hearing on other issues between the parties, shall be filed no later than 30 days after the closing of proofs in the final hearing or within such other period as the court orders.
 - (2) Any award of contribution to one party from the other party shall be based on the criteria for division of marital property under this Section 503 and, if maintenance has been awarded, on the criteria for an award of maintenance under Section 504.
 - (3) The filing of a petition for contribution shall not be deemed to constitute a waiver of the attorney-client privilege between the petitioning party and current or former counsel; and such a waiver shall not constitute a prerequisite to a hearing for contribution. If either party's presentation on contribution, however, includes evidence within the scope of the attorney-client privilege, the disclosure or disclosures shall be narrowly construed and shall not be deemed by the court to constitute a general waiver of the privilege as to matters beyond the scope of the presentation.
 - (4) No finding on which a contribution award is based or denied shall be asserted against counsel or former counsel for purposes of any hearing under subsection (c) or

- 1 (e) of Section 508.
- 2 (5) A contribution award (payable to either the 3 petitioning party or the party's counsel, or jointly, as the court determines) may be in the form of either a set 4 5 dollar amount or a percentage of fees and costs (or a portion of fees and costs) to be subsequently agreed upon 6 7 by the petitioning party and counsel or, alternatively, 8 thereafter determined in a hearing pursuant to subsection 9 (c) of Section 508 or previously or thereafter determined 10 in an independent proceeding under subsection (e) of 11 Section 508.
- 12 (6) The changes to this Section 503 made by this 13 amendatory Act of 1996 apply to cases pending on or after 14 June 1, 1997, except as otherwise provided in Section 508.
- The changes made to this Section by this amendatory Act of the 97th General Assembly apply only to petitions for dissolution of marriage filed on or after the effective date of this amendatory Act of the 97th General Assembly.

separation, declaration of invalidity of marriage, proceeding for child support following dissolution of the marriage by a court that which lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse, a proceeding for modification of a previous order for child support under Section 510 of this Act, or any proceeding authorized under Section 501 or 601 of this Act, the court may order either or both parents owing a duty of support to a child of the marriage to pay an amount reasonable and necessary for the support of the child his support, without regard to marital misconduct. The duty of support owed to a child includes the obligation to provide for the reasonable and necessary educational, physical, mental and emotional health needs of the child. For purposes of this Section, the term "child" shall include any child under age 18 and any child under age 19 who is still attending high school.

(2.5) The court, in its discretion, in addition to setting child support pursuant to the guidelines and factors, may order either or both parents owing a duty of actually paid pursuant to a court order;

- (h) Expenditures for repayment of debts that represent reasonable and necessary expenses for the production of income, medical expenditures necessary to preserve life or health, reasonable expenditures for the benefit of the child and the other parent, exclusive of gifts. The court shall reduce net income in determining the minimum amount of support to be ordered only for the period that such payments are due and shall enter an order containing provisions for its self-executing modification upon termination of such payment period;

jurisdiction over the absent spouse, and in which the court is requiring payment of support for the period before the date an order for current support is entered, there is a rebuttable presumption that the supporting party's net income for the prior period was the same as his or her net income at the time the order for current support is entered.

- (5) If the net income cannot be determined because of default or any other reason, the court shall order support in an amount considered reasonable in the particular case. The final order in all cases shall state the support level in dollar amounts. However, if the court finds that the child support amount cannot be expressed exclusively as a dollar amount because all or a portion of the payor's net income is uncertain as to source, time of payment, or amount, the court may order a percentage amount of support in addition to a specific dollar amount and enter such other orders as may be necessary to determine and enforce, on a timely basis, the applicable support ordered.

received proper notice, then any relevant financial information concerning the non-custodial parent's ability to provide child support that was obtained pursuant to subpoena and proper notice shall be admitted into evidence without the need to establish any further foundation for its admission.

- (a-5) In an action to enforce an order for support based on the respondent's failure to make support payments as required by the order, notice of proceedings to hold the respondent in contempt for that failure may be served on the respondent by personal service or by regular mail addressed to the respondent's last known address. The respondent's last known address may be determined from records of the clerk of the court, from the Federal Case Registry of Child Support Orders, or by any other reasonable means.
- (b) Failure of either parent to comply with an order to pay support shall be punishable as in other cases of contempt. In addition to other penalties provided by law the Court may, after finding the parent guilty of contempt, order that the parent be:
 - (1) placed on probation with such conditions of probation as the Court deems advisable;
 - (2) sentenced to periodic imprisonment for a period not to exceed 6 months; provided, however, that the Court may permit the parent to be released for periods of time during the day or night to:

The Court may further order any part or all of the earnings of a parent during a sentence of periodic imprisonment paid to the Clerk of the Circuit Court or to the parent having custody or to the guardian having custody of the children of the sentenced parent for the support of said children until further order of the Court.

If there is a unity of interest and ownership sufficient to render no financial separation between a non-custodial parent and another person or persons or business entity, the court may pierce the ownership veil of the person, persons, or business entity to discover assets of the non-custodial parent held in the name of that person, those persons, or that business The following circumstances are sufficient authorize a court to order discovery of the assets of a person, persons, or business entity and to compel the application of any discovered assets toward payment on the judgment for support:

- (1) the non-custodial parent and the person, persons, or business entity maintain records together.
- (2) the non-custodial parent and the person, persons, or business entity fail to maintain an arm's arms length relationship between themselves with regard to any assets.
 - (3) the non-custodial parent transfers assets to the person, persons, or business entity with the intent to perpetrate a fraud on the custodial parent.

With respect to assets which are real property, no order entered under this paragraph shall affect the rights of bona fide purchasers, mortgagees, judgment creditors, or other lien holders who acquire their interests in the property prior to the time a notice of lis pendens pursuant to the Code of Civil Procedure or a copy of the order is placed of record in the office of the recorder of deeds for the county in which the real property is located.

The court may also order in cases where the parent is 90 days or more delinquent in payment of support or has been adjudicated in arrears in an amount equal to 90 days obligation or more, that the parent's Illinois driving privileges be suspended until the court determines that the parent is in compliance with the order of support. The court may also order that the parent be issued a family financial responsibility driving permit that would allow limited driving privileges for employment and medical purposes in accordance with Section 7-702.1 of the Illinois Vehicle Code. The clerk of the circuit court shall certify the order suspending the driving privileges of the parent or granting the issuance of a family financial responsibility driving permit to the Secretary of State on forms prescribed by the Secretary. Upon receipt of the authenticated documents, the Secretary of State shall suspend the parent's driving privileges until further order of the 1 court and shall, if ordered by the court, subject to the provisions of Section 7-702.1 of the Illinois Vehicle Code, issue a family financial responsibility driving permit to the

In addition to the penalties or punishment that may be Section, under this any person whose constitutes a violation of Section 15 of the Non-Support Punishment Act may be prosecuted under that Act, and a person convicted under that Act may be sentenced in accordance with that Act. The sentence may include but need not be limited to a requirement that the person perform community service under Section 50 of that Act or participate in a work alternative program under Section 50 of that Act. A person may not be required to participate in a work alternative program under Section 50 of that Act if the person is currently participating in a work program pursuant to Section 505.1 of this Act.

A support obligation, or any portion of a support obligation, which becomes due and remains unpaid as of the end of each month, excluding the child support that was due for that month to the extent that it was not paid in that month, shall accrue simple interest as set forth in Section 12-109 of the Code of Civil Procedure. An order for support entered or modified on or after January 1, 2006 shall contain a statement that a support obligation required under the order, or any portion of a support obligation required under the order, that becomes due and remains unpaid as of the end of each month,

- 1 excluding the child support that was due for that month to the
- 2 extent that it was not paid in that month, shall accrue simple
- 3 interest as set forth in Section 12-109 of the Code of Civil
- 4 Procedure. Failure to include the statement in the order for
- 5 support does not affect the validity of the order or the
- 6 accrual of interest as provided in this Section.
- 7 (c) A one-time charge of 20% is imposable upon the amount
- 8 of past-due child support owed on July 1, 1988 which has
- 9 accrued under a support order entered by the court. The charge
- shall be imposed in accordance with the provisions of Section
- 11 10-21 of the Illinois Public Aid Code and shall be enforced by
- 12 the court upon petition.
- 13 (d) Any new or existing support order entered by the court
- 14 under this Section shall be deemed to be a series of judgments
- against the person obligated to pay support thereunder, each
- 16 such judgment to be in the amount of each payment or
- installment of support and each such judgment to be deemed
- 18 entered as of the date the corresponding payment or installment
- 19 becomes due under the terms of the support order. Each such
- 20 judgment shall have the full force, effect and attributes of
- 21 any other judgment of this State, including the ability to be
- 22 enforced. Notwithstanding any other State or local law to the
- contrary, a lien arises by operation of law against the real
- and personal property of the noncustodial parent for each
- installment of overdue support owed by the noncustodial parent.

the court in a county of 1,000,000 inhabitants or less, the 2 order shall direct the obligor to pay to the clerk, in addition to the child support payments, all fees imposed by the county 3 board under paragraph (3) of subsection (u) of Section 27.1 of 5 the Clerks of Courts Act. Unless paid in cash or pursuant to an order for withholding, the payment of the fee shall be by a 6

7 separate instrument from the support payment and shall be made to the order of the Clerk.

(f) All orders for support, when entered or modified, shall include a provision requiring the obligor to notify the court and, in cases in which a party is receiving child and spouse services under Article X of the Illinois Public Aid Code, the Department of Healthcare and Family Services, within 7 days, (i) of the name and address of any new employer of the obligor, (ii) whether the obligor has access to health insurance coverage through the employer or other group coverage and, if so, the policy name and number and the names of persons covered under the policy, and (iii) of any new residential or mailing address or telephone number of the non-custodial parent. In any subsequent action to enforce a support order, upon a sufficient showing that a diligent effort has been made to ascertain the location of the non-custodial parent, service of process or provision of notice necessary in the case may be made at the last known address of the non-custodial parent in any manner expressly provided by the Code of Civil Procedure or this Act, which service shall be sufficient for purposes of due process.

(g) An order for support shall include a date on which the current support obligation terminates. The termination date shall be no earlier than the date on which the child covered by the order will attain the age of 18. However, if the child will not graduate from high school until after attaining the age of 18, then the termination date shall be no earlier than the earlier of the date on which the child's high school graduation will occur or the date on which the child will attain the age of 19. The order for support shall state that the termination date does not apply to any arrearage that may remain unpaid on that date. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prevent the court from modifying the order or terminating the order in the event the child is otherwise emancipated.

(g-5) If there is an unpaid arrearage or delinquency (as those terms are defined in the Income Withholding for Support Act) equal to at least one month's support obligation on the termination date stated in the order for support or, if there is no termination date stated in the order, on the date the child attains the age of majority or is otherwise emancipated, the periodic amount required to be paid for current support of that child immediately prior to that date shall automatically continue to be an obligation, not as current support but as periodic payment toward satisfaction of the unpaid arrearage or delinquency. That periodic payment shall be in addition to any periodic payment previously required for satisfaction of the arrearage or delinquency. The total periodic amount to be paid toward satisfaction of the arrearage or delinquency may be enforced and collected by any method provided by law for enforcement and collection of child support, including but not limited to income withholding under the Income Withholding for Support Act. Each order for support entered or modified on or after the effective date of this amendatory Act of the 93rd General Assembly must contain a statement notifying the parties of the requirements of this subsection. Failure to include the statement in the order for support does not affect the validity of the order or the operation of the provisions of this subsection with regard to the order. This subsection shall not be construed to prevent or affect the establishment or modification of an order for support of a minor child or the establishment or modification of an order for support of a non-minor child or educational expenses under Section 513 of this Act.

(h) An order entered under this Section shall include a provision requiring the obligor to report to the obligee and to the clerk of court within 10 days each time the obligor obtains new employment, and each time the obligor's employment is terminated for any reason. The report shall be in writing and shall, in the case of new employment, include the name and address of the new employer. Failure to report new employment or the termination of current employment, if coupled with nonpayment of support for a period in excess of 60 days, is indirect criminal contempt. For any obligor arrested for

- failure to report new employment bond shall be set in the 1 2 amount of the child support that should have been paid during the period of unreported employment. An order entered under 3 4 this Section shall also include a provision requiring the 5 obligor and obligee parents to advise each other of a change in 6 residence within 5 days of the change except when the court 7 finds that the physical, mental, or emotional health of a party 8 or that of a child, or both, would be seriously endangered by 9 disclosure of the party's address.
- 10 (i) The court does not lose the powers of contempt, 11 driver's license suspension, or other child support 12 mechanisms, including, but not limited to, enforcement 13 criminal prosecution as set forth in this Act, upon the emancipation of the minor child or children. 14
